

Name:

Money, Money, Money Quiz

Use the internet to find the answers to the following questions.

1. The base unit of currency for the United States is the dollar, and it is printed in denominations (amounts) of various sizes. How many denominations of US dollar bills are currently being printed by the government?
2. What is the largest US bill currently being printed?
3. The Treasury Department used to print much higher denominations. What is the largest bill ever produced in the US?
4. Which of the following has never been printed as legal tender? $5 $200 $500 $10,000
5. When did the US government begin issuing paper money?
6. Who appears on the $1 bill?
7. Who appears on the $2 bill?
8. Who appears on the $5 bill?
9. Who appears on the $10 bill?
10. Which famous Jackson appears on the $20 bill?
11. Who appears on the $50 bill?
12. Which Founding Father appears on the $100 bill?
13. Of the following men, all of whom appear on US bills, who was never president of the United States?
James Madison      Andrew Jackson      Alexander Hamilton      Ulysses S. Grant

14. Now for the big bucks. Who appears on the $500 bill?
15. Who appears on the $1,000 bill?
16. Who appears on the $5,000 bill?
17. Which United States Chief Justice graces the $10,000 bill?
18. Which wartime president appears on the $100,000 bill?
19. True or False: A woman has never appeared on a US paper bill?      True      False
20. High denomination bills ($500-$100,000) are technically legal tender, but they are no longer printed. What's the last year that those bills were printed?
21. Which bill has the highest rate of production?
22. What is paper money actually made from?
23. When paper bills are deemed too worn to use, the Treasury Department takes them out of circulation and replaces them. How many months is the average $1 bill in circulation?
24. Which of the following is NOT true about the $2 bill?

Because of its scarcity, the bill is worth more than two dollars.

A man was arrested in 2005 for trying to pay with $2 bills at a Best Buy.

The $2 bill was discontinued in 1966 and reissued for the US bicentennial celebration in 1976.

It is the least circulated currency in US history.
25. Counterfeiting is as old as currency itself. Which bill is most frequently copied by counterfeiters in the United States?